REQUIRES 266 VOTES TO ELECT

Unusual Presidential Campaign Has Come to an End.

AIR FULL OF PREDICTIONS

Campaign Managers of Republican, Democratic and Progressive Parties Are Each Confident of Success. Contest for Votes Has Been Mainly Carried on in the Northern States.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 4.—[Special.]—Representatives of 90,000,000 people will tomorrow choose their president for the term of four years, beginning March 4, 1913. The recurring quadrennial event interests more people than anything that occurs in the country. Nothing else stirs the passions and the prejudices of men quite so much as the selection of the chief magistrate of the nation and for nearly a year the attention of the people has been attracted by the preliminaries and the actual presidential campaign.

On election night, thanks to the telegraph, telephone and enterprising newspapers, every person may know the result of the election. But twenty-four hours before there are claims by the different campaign managers, all confident, earnest even to boastfulness, while friends and partisans of the different candidates are vying with each other as to whom can more vigorously express belief in the success of the ticket they support. "Straw votes" innumerable have been taken, polls of various kinds made and the air has been full of predictions. Tomorrow night we shall know the facts.

The Republican party, which has been in control so many years, is split wide open and has been ever since the Chicago convention. Party dissensions were responsible for the defeat in the congressional campaign two years ago, but they are more acute now than ever before. The Progressive party is a wing of the old Republican party, with such adherents from the Democratic party as may be dissatisfied with the candidate or with present day conditions. Democratic rejoicing over the division at Chicago and the fierce contest for the presidential nomination showed the temper of that party and, while the convention at Baltimore was a tempestuous affair, it left no open breaches and no boiling factions. The successful nominee received the congratulations and pledged support of the defeated candidates.

South Solid, North Divided.

To win the Republicans have always had to carry most of the Northern states. The Progressives would have to do the same if they should win. Governor Wilson is assured, almost without contest, of fifteen Southern and border states, having 165 electoral votes. There are 531 votes in the electoral college, of which 266 are a majority. The Democrats will have to secure 101 votes in states above the border to win the presidency. In the election of 1910 the Democrats carried twelve of the Northern states for governor or a state officer and in many others elected a majority of the members of congress.

The contest for electoral votes has been made in the Northern states. The fight has been carried on in New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, all the big Mississippi valley states, the mountain states and the Pacific coast. Republicans and Progressives have fought for all these states and the Democrats have been fighting to hold their own party vote, confident that with a divided opposition they will carry a large proportion of the contested territory and not only secure the additional 101 votes but perhaps more.

Congress Also Democratic.

History shows that the house of representatives always goes with the presidency. The Republicans now have a majority of six in the senate and that lead may be easily overcome if there should be a Democratic victory. In thirty states legislatures will be chosen which will elect senators. In three of these—Colorado, Idaho and Illinois—two senators will be chosen, one to fill the expired term and one to fill vacancies. Maine has already chosen its legislature, which will elect a Republican in place of Gardner, a Democrat. In many states the primaries have already decided who will be senator and the election becomes a mere matter of form.

Besides those named the states which will choose senators are: Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Georgia, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia and Wyoming.

The larger house of representatives ever known is to be chosen, consisting of 425 members. Six members—two in Vermont and four in Maine—have already been elected.

Governors are to be elected in Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

One Remote Contingency.

With three actual contending tickets in the field there is the remote contingency that there may be no election by the electors and that the choice would go to the house of representatives. In this improbable event the house could not elect unless there should be a break in party lines. In the house the election must be by states, each state having one vote to be cast by the delegation. There are twenty-two Democratic states, twenty-two Republican states and four equally divided. If the house does not elect the senate chooses a vice president from the two having the highest number of electoral votes for vice president and the vice president becomes president on the 4th of March. But a majority of the entire senate must vote for the successful candidate and in the present condition it is doubtful whether there could be a choice among the vice presidential candidates. Then on the 4th of March the present secretary of state, Philander C. Knox, would become president and in twenty days he would have to convene congress to provide another election.

A Campaign of Personality.

The campaign of 1912 has been of marked personality from the beginning. It could be nothing else with a man like Theodore Roosevelt running on a third ticket. Although Mr. Taft was elected by 321 electoral votes against 162 for Mr. Bryan four years ago, with the unprecedented plurality of 1,269,804 of the popular vote, he was only renominated after the hardest kind of a fight and there was a bolt from the convention such as had not been seen in any organization in fifty years. As a result we have the unparalleled situation of two men running for president both of whom have been elected by the same party heretofore. That fact alone makes the campaign one of personality more than of issues.

Another Remarkable Convention.

Assembled at Baltimore a few days after the Republican convention the Democrats participated in one of the most remarkable conventions held in years. Fierce denunciation of Democrats by a former Democratic candidate, a contest in the beginning between the only two living men who had been candidates of that party in twenty years, the refusal to nominate a man who had a majority on many ballots, thus enforcing the two-thirds rule for the first time in more than sixty years, the extraordinary number of ballots, all made the convention one of the great events of the presidential campaign.

Stopped by a Bullet.

The country was shocked and the campaign halted and the personal attacks stopped by a bullet. The attempt upon Colonel Roosevelt's life, his dramatic performance in making a speech without waiting to have the wound examined or realizing its seriousness, the sympathy of millions of people, the personal messages of the other candidates, made this event the high light of the campaign. If for no other reason the campaign just closed will be one of the most remarkable that the country has experienced in many years.

Three Real Contending Tickets.

There are three real contending tickets in the field with a possibility that any one might be elected. A landslide or the unexpected might happen. The three tickets are: Republican, William H. Taft of Ohio and James S. Sherman of New York; Democratic, Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey and Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana; Progressive, Theodore Roosevelt of New York and Hiram Johnson of California. There are several other tickets, as usual, the most important being the Socialist, headed by Eugene V. Debs. Most of the men are well known to the people. Three governors figure prominently in the campaign—Wilson, Marshall and Johnson.

The men, the times, the issues, have made the campaign of 1912 historic and even wonderful. Not since 1860, when the country was standing on the brink of civil strife, has a third ticket been an important factor in a presidential election, although it is alleged that votes cast for a third ticket in 1884 decided the contest. In 1923 a third ticket received a number of electoral votes, but was in no sense a factor in determining the result. So far the first time those who vote tomorrow have a choice of three men for president, all of whom are real contenders and possibilities. Right up to the present time each has been confident that he would be elected and the campaign managers have expressed equal confidence.

SHOT WHILE HUNTING DUCKS

One of Minneapolis Party Accidentally Kills Young Man.

Waconia, Minn., Nov. 4.—Grover Zeglin, twenty-three years old, son of the proprietor of Coney Island hotel, was accidentally shot and killed.

With five friends from Minneapolis he crossed the neck of water about a half mile from the hotel to shoot ducks from behind a blind. The shooting occurred when the young man suddenly raised up in front of another member of the party, who was firing from behind.

The charge entered the back of the neck and death was instantaneous.

FRANKLIN K. LANE.

CAR SHORTAGE IS ACUTE

Commerce Commission Threatens to Take Drastic Action.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Shortage of freight cars, the menace of a coal famine and industrial paralysis in some parts of the country has become so serious that the interstate commerce commission proposed to shippers and railroads drastic recommendations for its relief, with a thinly veiled intimation that should they fail to remedy the situation the commission itself would find a way to do so.

"The condition is acute," declared Commissioner Franklin K. Lane, who for several weeks has been conducting an inquiry.

ROOSEVELT MAKES HIS FINAL APPEAL

Urges Every Voter to Read Progressive Platform.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 4.—At the end of the hardest campaign of his career in politics Colonel Roosevelt made a final appeal to the voters of the country on behalf of the Progressive ticket.

Colonel Roosevelt urged every voter to read the Progressive party's platform before going to the polls. "I wish to appeal as strongly as I can," his statement reads, "to the men and women of this country, to all good citizens throughout the Union, and ask them to support this great Progressive movement for righteousness and for fair dealing. The Progressive movement is in the interest of every honest man and woman in the land and therefore we have a right to ask that all good citizens, without regard to their past political affiliations, shall stand with us in this fight for clean politics and for the square deal in industry. Only the Progressive party has faced the real and vital issues of the day. Not only are both of the old parties boss ridden and privilege controlled, but they are wedded to the dead issues of a vanished past and they show not the slightest conception of the needs of the day or the steps now urgently necessary to take if grave disaster to the nation in the future is to be avoided."

KILLS HIMSELF AT NIAGARA

Fireman Calls "Goodbye" as He Goes Over American Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Christian Kledehn, forty-five years old, a city fireman, committed suicide by jumping into the river near Prospect Point and going over the American falls. J. H. Read of Cambridge, Mass., was near the man when he entered the stream and tried to reach Kledehn. The latter waived to Read as he went careening towards the falls and called out "goodbye."

No reason is known for the suicide. Nothing has been seen of the body.

SIXTEEN PERSONS PERISH

Storm Drives Frail Vessel Ashore Near Montreal.

Montreal, Nov. 4.—During a storm the steamer Cecilia, which plied between Montreal and Valleyfield, sank at Isle Perrot, in Lake St. Louis, ten miles west of here.

At least sixteen people were drowned, the lost composing men, women and children. Only four passengers were saved, all men.

Soon after the Cecilia had left the Lachine canal and entered the lake a storm caught the frail little craft, which was of only 125 tons. With the force of a gale behind her she rushed towards the south shore and struck with a crash.

The cries of the people in the water attracted the attention of a farmer, who put out in a small boat and picked up the four men who were clinging to the rigging.

NEXT SENATE IS IN DOUBT

Democratic Chances of Carrying It.

ELECTION OF 1892 A PARALLEL

Then the Democrats Won, but Two Years Later the Tide Turned—Hunting For the Original Wilson Man, Marion Butler Still Confident—Mrs. Longworth Aids Father's Campaign.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 4.—[Special.]—After the election in 1892, which, like that of 1890, had been a Democratic sweep, there was a Democratic majority in the senate. In addition to the southern states there were Democrats from New York, Ohio, New Jersey, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, California, Delaware, Kansas, North Dakota and Populist senators from Nebraska and South Dakota.

Beginning with the election of 1894 the tide turned toward the Republicans, and there was a time when the senate was about two-thirds Republican, when the only Democrats were from two or three intermountain states. More than that, they went south of Mason and Dixon's line and captured senatorships in Maryland, West Virginia, North Carolina, Missouri, Kentucky and even in Tennessee.

History May Repeat.

As a result of the election there may be a repetition of what occurred twenty years ago. There are unlimited possibilities. With thirty-three senators to elect almost anything may happen. The complication in Idaho, where two senators are to be elected, the two in Colorado and the two in Illinois, furnishes food for speculation. Then, supposing that these claims of the Democrats have any foundation. They have a chance to win senators in place of Republicans in Oregon, New Jersey, Nebraska, Massachusetts, Kansas, Montana, South Dakota, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan and Rhode Island.

My own opinion is that Republicans will be elected in Minnesota, Michigan, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, but there are many possibilities in the other states owing to the peculiar political conditions and the bitter feeling among Republican factions.

Original Wilson Man.

So confident were the Democrats of the success of their candidate that they began a search for the original Wilson man some time ago. I am told that it is desirable to locate him early because past experience has shown that when a president is elected there are about 10,000 "originals" who turn up and want an office. The "original" is the man who first mentioned the successful man for president.

Almost Persuaded.

Coming over from New York not long ago, I chatted with Marion Butler, former senator from North Carolina and now a vigorous Roosevelt man. Not having any doubt about the election, I was rather surprised to learn from Butler of the Roosevelt possibilities if not "sure thing" conditions. In fact, I was getting almost persuaded when we reached Washington.

Mrs. Butler met her husband at the station, and, being as much interested in politics as any one, she asked and obtained opinions. "The senator has almost shaken my belief in Wilson's election," I said, "and almost persuaded me that Roosevelt will win."

"The senator is always confident of anything that he wants to happen," said Mrs. Butler. "I think a great deal of his success is due to that characteristic."

Then I recollected that as far back as 1896 Butler was confident that Bryan would be elected.

Her Own $600.

Some one who did not know suggested that the $600 which Mrs. Nicholas Longworth contributed to her father's campaign fund came out of Nick's money, who is not supporting the colonel for president. Mrs. Longworth inherited from her mother, the first Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, a very comfortable fortune. She has always been independent in money matters.

First Voters For T. R.

Depending upon everything that looks favorable the campaign managers snatch at anything which comes their way. Thus I find that one reason for a part of the confidence which men feel in Roosevelt is that first voters will be generally for him. They reason that he has always been the idol of youth; that young men everywhere like his style, his methods and his personality.

If Jim Ham Comes to Town.

Should it so happen that Jim Ham Lewis wins in Illinois I do not believe there will be any regrets hereabouts. Of course the venerable Senator Culom is a tradition in the senate, the only one left by the way, but the Republicans of Illinois decided they did not want the man who linked the past with the present to remain here as long as he lived. Consequently, those who don't know who the man was that defeated Culom in the primaries, but do know Jim Ham Lewis hope that he will come here with his whiskers, his correct costumes and, more than all else, his brilliant and versatile mind.

Mr. Warthen is held in Chicago as a witness in the murder of Miss Sophia Singer, a Baltimore heiress, who eloped with him and was to have married him. She was found in a Chicago boarding house bound, gagged and her skull crushed in. She had been robbed of valuable jewelry and money. Warthen laid the blame on Charles Conway, a one-legged professional diver and circus clown, and his wife, in whose room the body was found. The Conways fled and were caught at Lima, O.

CONFESSES KILLING WOMAN

Slayer Says He Struck Miss Singer in Self-Defense.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Broken by thirty-six hours of silent treatment, a new form of third degree devised by Captain Max Nootbaar of the Chicago police, Charles N. Kramer confessed that he killed Sophia Singer, the Baltimore heiress found murdered here last Monday night.

Kramer, known generally by his stage name of Conway, in the final confession that cleared up the murder mystery, added a new feature to the statement given by his wife. He said that he struck Miss Singer down in self-defense when she attacked him with a razor after he had rebuked her for making, he said, an objectionable suggestion to Mrs. Kramer. Kramer exonerated his wife from all blame in connection with the crime.

GENERAL O'REILLY IS DEAD

Personal Physician of President Cleveland Succumbs.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Major General Robert Maitland O'Reilly, former surgeon general of the United States army, personal physician and intimate friend of President Cleveland, died here of uremic poisoning.

General O'Reilly, who had been ill for some time, was born in Philadelphia in 1845 and participated in many of the stirring events of the nation's military history in the last half century. He was in the Civil war as a medical cadet and saw hard service in the Indian campaigns. In the Spanish-American war General O'Reilly was chief surgeon of the Fourth army corps. He was a member of the evacuation commission at Havana and chief surgeon of the division of Cuba during the first American occupation.

URGES POWERS TO INTERVENE

HADLEY APPEARS TO BE FAVORITE

Eighteen Republican Committee-men Prefer Missourian.

SHERMAN SUCCESSION COSSIP

Twenty-four Members Notify Chairman Hilles of Their Choice—Two Favor John Wanamaker, One Secretary of War Stimson, One S. W. McCall, One Justice Hughes and One Governor Goldsborough.

New York, Nov. 4.—Eighteen out of twenty-four members of the national committee who have notified Chairman Hilles of their choice of a vice presidential candidate to succeed the late James S. Sherman favor Governor Hadley of Missouri.

In a statement here Chairman Hilles declared that no selection would be made by the national committee until Nov. 12, but he made public the desires of the twenty-four committee-men who have openly stated their choice. Of these, aside from the majority for Governor Hadley, two favored John Wanamaker of Philadelphia, one Secretary of War Stimson, one Representative S. W. McCall of Massachusetts, one Justice Hughes and one Governor Goldsborough of Maryland.

"The suggestion that members of the Republican national committee should authorize the executive committee or the chairman of the committee to nominate a candidate for vice president to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Sherman is not feasible and therefore has not received favorable consideration," said Mr. Hilles. "It has already been made clear that it would have been a physical impossibility for the members of the committee to attend a meeting prior to election day, there not being sufficient interim between the death of the vice president and election day for the committee to convene. Proxies would not have been legal and action based on such proxies would have been an unwarrantable innovation and would have established a dangerous precedent."

"A majority of the members of the committee have, however, publicly expressed their choice for a candidate."

The members of the committee who have publicly announced their preference for Governor Hadley are:

Lewis of Vermont, Brooker of Connecticut, Barker of Alabama, Jackson of Georgia, Moseley of Mississippi, Brown of the District of Columbia, Granger of Ohio, Goodrich of Indiana, Warren of Michigan, Hawkins of Minnesota, Neidringhouse of Missouri, Harris of Oklahoma, McGregor of Texas (Governor Hadley or Wanamaker), Behn of Porto Rico, Marlow of Montana, Maxson of Nevada, Pexton of Wyoming, Spies of New Mexico.

Fire Loss of $100,000.

Underwood, W. Va., Nov. 4.—Fire from a gas explosion in a big general store destroyed the store, a score of business and residence buildings and portions of the Underwood hotel. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

HONOR TITANIC MUSICIANS

Bronze Tablet Unveiled by New York Protective Union.

New York, Nov. 4.—The heroic musicians who played "Nearer, My God, to Thee" as the Titanic sank in the Atlantic last April were honored in memory by musicians here. A bronze tablet to the seven bandmen, prepared by members of the Musicians' Mutual Protective union, was unveiled at the clubhouse of the organization. The exercises were simple. There was a brief address and then a band identical in makeup of that which played on the Titanic gave out the solemn strains of the hymn which was the ship's requiem.

GOVERNOR WILSON INJURED

Suffers Slight Scalp Wound in Motor Car Accident.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 4.—Governor Woodrow Wilson wears a narrow strip of colloid across the top of his head covering a scalp wound three inches long which he received in a motor car mishap on the way home from Red Bank, N. J. His automobile struck a mound in the road and jolted him up against a steel rib in the roof of the limousine car. The wound is not serious.

Turkey Admits Her Defeat at Hands of Bulgaria.

ARMY IS IN FULL RETREAT

General Belief Prevails That Victors Will Refuse to Listen to Anything in the Way of Intervention Until the Bulgarian Forces Are at the Gates of Constantinople.

London, Nov. 4.—The Turkish army is in full retreat on Constantinople and the Turkish government has asked the powers to intervene. An official bulletin was issued by the government at Constantinople admitting defeat at the hands of the Bulgarians in the great battle on the Thracian plains.

Application was made to the embassies in Constantinople for mediation by the powers to end the hostilities and arrange a peace agreement. The ambassadors, prior to this, had asked the porte to grant permission to each of the great powers to send one warship through the Dardanelles and this request has been complied with. The only guarantee of safety for the native Christians, and perhaps foreigners in Constantinople, is to be found in the presence of the warships of the great powers in the harbor of the Turkish capital.

It is the general belief that Bulgaria will refuse to listen to anything in the way of intervention until the Bulgarian army is at the gates of Constantinople and will insist that Turkey make an appeal direct to the allies without interference from the powers. The powers have not been able to agree upon the French premier's formula of "territorial disinterestedness," which is not acceptable to either Austria or Germany. They are taking steps, however, for the protection of Christians and their own political interests in Turkey. One warship in addition to the vessels already dispatched to Turkish ports will be sent through the Dardanelles by each of the powers.

Beyond the statement that the Turkish army is retreating to the last line of fortifications outside Constantinople there was little news received from the seat of war. Fighting was reported along the line from Thessalonica to Serai, which was the outcome, doubtless, of the efforts of the defeated Turks to retire within the Thessalonian lines, which the Bulgarians are doing their utmost to prevent.

The besieging forces are tightening their grip around Adrianople and the bombardment is becoming more vigorous. In other directions the allies are consolidating their occupation of Turkish territory. The Greeks have taken Nicopolis and Preveza and have landed a division at Stavros, which is marching to attack Saloniki. An uncensored dispatch from the latter town intimates the likelihood of its surrender without resistance.

MOSLEMS PLEA FOR PEACE

Paramount Idea Is to Safeguard the Fatherland.

Constantinople, Nov. 4.—The official bulletin issued by the Turkish government follows:

"The fortunes of war are variable and it is not always to be successful on all sides. A people which accepts war must submit with resignation to all its consequences. To overlook this obligation is to fall in one's duty. Consequently, while it would be unwise to be unnecessarily proud over victory, it likewise would be incorrect to be alarmed at want of success."

"For instance, in the present war with the four federated states the imperial troops are defending themselves with success in the environs of Soutari and Janinadi, but the Eastern army in the neighborhood of Viza and Lule Burgas felt obliged to retire to the lines of defense at Tchatalja."

"In order to facilitate a successful defense it has naturally been decided to exert all efforts to safeguard the interests of the fatherland."

MORE SKIN FOR BURNED GIRL

Father, Brother and Fiance Undergo Operation.

Gary, Ind., Nov. 4.—Three more men, her father, brother and her fiance, gave up fifty square inches of skin for the burned body of Miss Ethel Smith, for whom Billy Rugh, the crippled newsboy, gave his life by allowing a useless limb to be amputated for its skin.

Charles Smith, the father, Ray Smith, twenty-one years, her brother, and Roy Roberts, twenty-one years old, gave the skin. When Rugh gave his limb not enough skin was obtained. It is said Miss Smith will be well in a month.

Vote for amendment No. 1 tomorrow, the one-mill tax amendment, which means good country roads
throughout Minnesota if it is adopted by the people.

If you are a republican and have the best interests of the country at heart you should cast your vote for the republican candidate for president, W. H. Taft, tomorrow. Don't let sentiment interfere with your best interests.

The express companies are preparing a new schedule of prices to combat the parcels post which goes into effect January 1st. If the parcels post results in a reduction of express rates to a reasonable figure it surely will have performed its mission.

There will be less of the "paid advertisement" species in the country press during the next few months, and the readers will be relieved of the pictures of candidates for various offices which have confronted them at their coffee and rolls and evening meals for many months.

It is the duty of every American citizen to cast his vote at the election tomorrow—and his privilege to vote as his conscience dictates. With these things in mind do not forget that under a republican administration you are enjoying the height of prosperity and that a vote for the republican ticket is a vote for a continuance of the same condition of affairs.

If you are satisfied with present conditions and the general prosperity that pervades the country your vote tomorrow should be cast for William H. Taft for president of the United States. Your vote for him is a vote for the continuation of republican principles and policies the result of which in the government of this country has made it what it is today, one of the most prosperous and progressive nations in the world.

Some people who have questioned the attitude of Senator Knute Nelson on national affairs had their minds set at rest when he publicly stated in a speech at Osakis that he was supporting the republican ticket from top to bottom, and that he has never sailed under false colors and never would. Senator Nelson told his hearers that there was no need for a third party in the nation, and the difference with party as well as progressive legislation must be settled by the party.

The annual slaughter of men has commenced, even before the open season for killing deer has been ushered in, by sooners who have no regard for law. Occasionally by pure accident a man will stop a bullet intended for a deer by being in the path of the bullet and unseen by the man who fires the shot, but these accidents are rare. The man who wounds or kills a fellow being under the impression that he is shooting at an animal is unfit to be in the woods with any kind of a weapon, for a hunter in the true sense of the word does not shoot until he sees his game and knows what he is shooting at. The man who shoots at anything that moves regardless of what it is is a dangerous proposition and a menace to human life.

The Little Falls Transcript in a vigorous editorial calls on the city council to compel all users of soft coal to use smoke consumers, in the resident section as well as the business. The Transcript recites that the only argument in favor of the soft coal is economy and says what is saved in the original cost of the coal by the user is more than offset by the results of its use. The air is contaminated with the soot and one not only breathes it but the homes and business places of householders and merchants is befouled, the furnishings and stocks of costly goods is covered with the soot that the air is laden with and even the pedestrian in his trips along the business avenues is besmirched on person and clothes with great chunks of the oily, black substance which floats through space from daylight till dark. Brainerd comes under the same heading as Little Falls as far as this smoke and soot nuisance and it is high time that it was taken notice of and some remedy provided if such a thing is possible.

OWA MAN STUCK WITH PITCHFORK

A farmer living in the Northern part of Iowa stuck himself in the leg with a pitch fork. The wound would not heal and for two years he had a running sore. He tried all the common salves and liniments and sometimes the sore would heal, but it always broke open again. Finally he healed it up to stay healed with Allen's Ulcerine Salve.

This salve is one of the oldest remedies in America and since 1869 it has been known as the only salve powerful enough to cure chronic ulcers and old sores of long standing.

Allen's Ulcerine Salve acts by drawing out the poisons and healing the sore from the bottom up. It is so powerful that it heals new cuts and sores in one-third the time that common salves and liniments take.
And it heals burns and scalds without a scar.—Adv.

Hardly.

The two women were seated on the sand at the seashore one June day. The elder one said:

"That's my daughter with the red bathing suit just going into the water."

"Oh, indeed?" said the other one.

"Yes; she's just eighteen. I'm going to bring her out next fall."

"Gracious! You don't mean to say you're going to allow her to stay in the water that long?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Preventing a Collision.

When warships are steaming in fleet formation through fog it becomes necessary to provide some marking by means of which the vessels may maintain their places in line and at the desired distance from each other. The usual method adopted by British fleets when caught in a fog is the trailing of a buoy in the water behind each vessel. This buoy makes a flapping noise, which is easily heard by the lookout on the ship following as well as leaving a wake discernible to the eye.—Popular Mechanics.

Adam's Mistake.

Eve had just come in from the wood, where she had gathered unto herself a fine new costume of autumn leaves.

ARMAGEDDON OF THE SCRIPTURES

Startling Presentation of Coming Events.

PASTOR RUSSELL'S VIEWS.

Churches of All Denominations and the Civil Powers of Earth Are About to Unite in Common Cause—Powerful Influence Preparing for the Battle of Armageddon—A Reign of Anarchy Will Be the Result of the Warfare Until the Messiah Takes Control.

Brooklyn, N. Y. Nov. 3. — The Brooklyn Academy of Music was crowded to the limit today to hear Pastor Russell's discourse on the "Battle of Armageddon."

The Lord has seen fit to associate the name Armageddon, with the great controversy between Truth and Error right and wrong, God and Mammon with which this Age will close, perish and the New Age of Messiah's glory be ushered in. He has purposely used, highly symbolical figures of speech in the last book of the Bible, evidently with a view to hiding certain important truths until the due time for their revelation. But even in the due time, the Bible assures us, "None of the wicked shall understand" (Daniel xii. 9, 10)—none who are out of heart harmony with God but only the wise of His people—the "wise virgin" class of the Master's parable.

I have long avoided presentation of my understanding of our text and its context. I take it up now by request and because I believe it is due time to be understood. I disclaim any special inspiration. In some particulars my views agree with those of other Bible students, and in other respects they disagree. Each hearer must use his own judgment, do his own Bible study, and reach his own conclusions.

Kindly remember that I am not responsible for the figures of speech used by the Lord. My interpretations do in no way constitute a terrible arraignment of institutions which we have all revered and which embrace good people, of good words and good works. God's saints in these various institutions, being comparatively few, are ignored when systems as a whole are dealt with in prophecy.

The Dragon, Beast, False Prophet. Our context tells us that three impure spirits (teachings) will go forth from the mouths of the Dragon, the Beast and the False Prophet, and these three will be in accord, and symbolically the doctrines are represented by "frogs." These three doctrines are to have a mighty influence throughout the civilized earth. They are to gather the kings and their armies to the great Battle of Armageddon.

The ecclesiastical kings and princes, and their retainers of clergy and faithful adherents, will be gathered in solid phalanx—Protestant and Catholic. The kings and captains of industry, and as many as can be influenced by them, will be gathered to the same side. The political kings and princes, with all their henchmen and retainers, will follow in line on the same side. The financial kings and merchant princes, and all whom they can influence by the most gigantic power ever yet exercised in the world will join the same side, according to this prophecy.

These "doctrines of demons," represented by the "frogs," will lead many noble people in this great army to assume an attitude quite contrary to their preference. For a time the wheels of liberty and progress will be turned backward and medieval restraints will be considered necessary for self-preservation for the maintenance of the present order of things.

In giving this interpretation, it is necessary for us to indicate what is symbolized by the Dragon, the Beast, and the False Prophet. Bible students of nearly all denominations agree with us that the "Dragon" of Revelation represents the purely Civil Power. Protestant interpreters generally agree that the "Beast like a leopard" (Revelation xiii. 2) represents the Papacy. But fewer still, we fear, will be ready to support our view that Protestantism is the "Image of the Beast" (Revelation xiii. 15) in our context given another name, "the False Prophet." We urge no one to accept our interpretation, nor shall we think hard of any who refuse it. We will neither slander nor otherwise injure them now, nor threaten them with eternal torture. They have the same right to their views that I have, and the same right to make them known to others. And I, for one, will be very glad to consider any thing which opponents may set forth as their interpretations of our text.

"Unclean Spirits Like Frogs." The symbolisms of Scripture, rightly understood, are always forceful. When the Holy Spirit used a "frog" to symbolically represent certain doctrines or teachings, we may be sure the true application will fit well. A frog has a sage look, a wise look. It swells itself up in an apparent endeavor to impress the beholder. Its great mouth well represents its chief power, used to croak.

Applying these symbols, we learn that an evil spirit, influence, teaching will come from the Protestant churches federated, from the Church of Rome, and from the Civil authorities, all in full agreement. The spirit of all will be boastful; an air of superior wisdom and knowledge will be proudly assumed—all will croak in harmony. All will cell of dire results that would follow. Involving the interests of both the present and the future life, if their counsel be not followed. However conflicting the creeds, the differences will be ignored in the general proposition that nothing ancient must be disturbed, or looked into, or repudiated.

The Divine authority of the Church, and the Divine right of kings, aside from the Church, will not be allowed to conflict. Any persons or teachings in conflict with these boastful and unscriptural claims will be branded as everything vile, at the mouths of these "frogs" speaking from pulpits and platforms and through the religious and secular press. The nobler sentiments of some will be strangled by the philosophy of the same evil spirit which spoke through Calaphas, as Calaphas declared it expedient to commit a crime in violation of justice, human and Divine, to be rid of Jesus and His teachings, so this "frog" spirit will approve of every violation of principle necessary to their self-protection.

The croaking of these "frog" spirits or doctrines will gather the kings and princes, financial, political, religious and industrial into one great army. The spirit of fear, inspired by the croakings of these "frogs," will scourge the passions of otherwise good and reasonable men to fury, desperation. In their blind following of these evil spirits, evil doctrines, they will be ready to sacrifice life and everything on the altar of what they mistakenly suppose is justice, truth and righteousness, under a Divine arrangement.

For a brief time, as we understand the Scriptures, these combined forces of Armageddon will triumph. Free speech, free mails, and other liberties which have come to be the very breath of the masses in our day, will be ruthlessly shut off under the plea of necessity, the glory of God, the commands of the Church, etc. All will seem to be serene, until the great social explosion in our context described as the "great Earthquake." An "earthquake" in symbolic language, signifies social revolution, and the declaration of the context is that none like unto it ever before occurred. (Revelation xvi. 18, 19.) Jesus described it as a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation.—Matthew xxi.—

The false, frog-like teachings will gather together into one host the great, the rich, the wise, the learned and the kings of the earth, to battle. At this juncture Divine Power will step forward, and our text tells us that He shall gather the marshalled hosts to Armageddon—to the Mountains of Destruction. The very thing which they sought to avert by their union, federation, etc., will be the very thing they will hasten. Other Scriptures tell us that God will be represented by the Great Messiah, and that He will be on the side of the masses. Thus we read in Daniel xii. 1: "At that time shall Michael (the Godlike One—Messiah) stand up"—assume authority. He will take possession of His Kingdom in a manner little looked for by many of those who erroneously have been claiming that they were His Kingdom, and authorized by Him to reign in His name and in His stead.

Jesus declared, "His servants ye are unto whom ye render service." Some may be rendering service to Satan and to error, who claim to be rendering service to God and to righteousness; and some of these may be serving ignorantly, as did Saul of Tarsus, who "verily thought that he did God a service" in persecuting the Church. The same principle holds true reversely. As an earthly king does not hold himself responsible for the moral character of each soldier who fights in his battles, so the Lord does not vouch for the moral character of all who will enlist and fight on His side of any question.

"His servants they are to whom they render service," whatever the motive or object prompting them. The same principle will apply in the coming Battle of Armageddon. God's side of that battle will be the people's side, and the very nondescript host, the people, will be pitted at the beginning of the battle. Anarchists, Socialists, and hot-headed radicals of every school of reason and unreason, will be in the forefront of that battle. The majority of the poor and the middle class prefer peace at almost any price. A comparatively small number, God's consecrated people, will at heart be longing for Messiah's Kingdom. These will bide the Lord's time and wait patiently for it; they will be of good courage, knowing the outcome outlined in the "more sure word of prophecy," to which they have done well to take heed, "as unto a light shining in a dark place until the Day dawn."—II Peter i. 19.

The masses will be restless of their restraints, but will be conscious of their own weakness as compared to the kings and princes, financial, religious and political, which will then hold sway. Besides, the masses have no sympathy with anarchy. They realize truly that the worst form of government is better than none. The masses will seek relief through the ballot and peaceful re-adjustment of earth's affairs for the elimination of evil, for the placing of monopolies and utilities and the supplies of nature in the hands of the people for the public good. The crisis will be reached when the hitherto upholders of law shall become violators of the law and resistors of the will of the majority as expressed by the ballot. Fear for the future will lead the well-meaning masses to desperation; and anarchy will result when Socialism fails.

Horrible would be this outlook for the future did we not have the infallible Word of God assuring us of a glorious outcome! Divine Wisdom has withheld until our day the great knowledge and skill which is at the same time breeding millionaires and discontents. Had God lifted the veil a thousand years sooner, the world would have lined up for its Armageddon a thousand years sooner. But that would have been too soon for the Divine purpose, because Messiah's Kingdom is to be the great Thousand-Year-Sabbath of the world's history. God in kindness veiled our eyes until the time when the gathering to Armageddon would immediately precede Messiah's taking to Himself His great power, and beginning His reign.—Revelation xii. 17, 18.

"Send Them Strong Delusions." St. Paul wrote prophetically of our time, that it would be one of serious trial and testing to many professing to be Christians. The reason for this he states—they received not the Truth in the love of it. (II Thessalonians ii. 10, 11.) They preferred their own erroneous theories, the Apostle explains, and therefore God will give them over to a "strong delusion," and let them believe the lie which they preferred, and let them suffer for missing the Truth which they did not love. Thus they will be in the condemned host, "fighting against God," because of their lack of love for the Truth.

It is sad to say that we all as Christians have been laboring under a thorough delusion respecting God's Plan. We have claimed that Christ set up His Church in Kingdom power, and that the Church has been reigning on the earth as His representative. On the strength of this delusion, Jews and heretics have been persecuted to death as opponents to Christ's Kingdom. All the while we thoughtlessly repeated the Lord's prayer: "Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as in Heaven." We knew that the Redeemer said that He would come again to make us His Bride and joint-heirs; but we ignored the Scriptures. We were drunk, as the Scriptures symbolically say, "all nations were drunk" with the false doctrine. It is this false doctrine that will constitute the "frog" spirit which soon will begin to croak and to prepare for Armageddon.

The Bible presentation is that the world is a section of the universe in rebellion against Divine authority, under the captivity of Satan and his associated fallen angels. By Divine grace Jesus has already "tasted death for every man," and the merit of that sacrifice must, eventually, grant Adam and his posterity a full, fair opportunity for the attainment of everlasting life. All who thus see the Divine program and are walking in the light may know something at least respecting the "times and seasons." These brethren "are not in darkness, that that day [and that battle of Armageddon] should overtake" them "as a thief"—unaware.

Armageddon Not Yet but Soon. For forty years the Armageddon forces have been mustering for both sides of the conflict. Strikes, lockouts and riots, great and small, have been merely incidental skirmishes as the belligerent parties crossed each other's paths. Court and Army scandals in Europe, Insurance, Trust and Court scandals in America, have shaken public confidence. Dynamite plots, charged by turns on employees and on employers, have further shaken confidence and tended to make each distrustful of the other. Bitter and angry feelings on both sides are more and more manifest. The lines of battle are daily becoming more distinctly marked. Nevertheless Armageddon cannot yet be fought. Other matters intervene, according to prophecy.

Gentle times have still two years to run. The "Image of the Beast" of our context must yet receive life-power. The Image must be transformed from a mere mechanism to a living force. Protestant Federation realizes that its organization will still be futile unless it receive vitalization—unless its clergy directly or indirectly shall be recognized as possessed of apostolic ordination and authority to teach. This the prophecy indicates will come from the two horned beast, which, we believe, symbolically represents the Church of England. High-handed activities of Protestantism and Catholicism, operating in conjunction for the suppression of human liberties, await this vivifying of the Image. This may come soon, but Armageddon cannot precede it, but must follow—perhaps a year after it, according to our view of the Prophecy.

Still another thing intervenes: Although the Jews are gradually flowing into Palestine, gradually obtaining control of the land of Canaan, and although reports say that already nineteen millionaires are there, nevertheless prophecy requires an evidently larger number of wealthy Hebrews to be there before the Armageddon crisis be reached. Indeed we understand that "Jacob's trouble" in the Holy Land will come at the very close of Armageddon. Then Messiah's Kingdom will begin to be manifested. Thenceforth Israel in the land of promise will gradually rise from the ashes of the past to the grandeur of prophecy. Through its Divinely appointed prince Messiah's Kingdom, all-powerful but invisible, will begin to roll away the curse and to lift up mankind.

Father of the Weather Bureau. The father of the weather bureau service was Increase A. Lapham, a modest and retired but ripe scholar, who lived in Milwaukee. He was the first to note by telegraph the progress of the wind currents and storms and to predict their appearance in specified neighborhoods. On the strength of a weather dispatch from Omaha in 1869 or thereabouts he announced the first storm on Lake Michigan that ever was heralded twelve hours in advance of its arrival. The first work of the weather bureau was under his charge in Chicago. It was on the small beginnings of Dr. Lapham that the entire system of the signal service was based. Dr. Lapham died in 1875.

Needless Alarm. A nervous man took his wife to a party and, having laid aside his things, waited for her to come downstairs from the dressing room. The hostess saw him standing alone in the hall and exclaimed excitedly:

"Oh, Mr. Jenks, hasn't your wife come too?" "Dear me, madam," screamed the nervous man, "nobody told me she had fainting!" And he rushed upstairs before the hostess could explain.—Woman's Home Companion.

90,000 More Seals Than In 1911. The seal pack in the Alaskan waters is the largest in approximately fifteen years, with the exception of one year, according to the commissioner of fisheries. Mr. Bowers in his annual report will show that there are 90,000 more seals in the rookeries in the Bering region than were there last year. Of these the females increased from 39,400 to 81,954.

PEFFER FOUNDED POPULIST PARTY

As United States Senator He Made a Sensation.

HIS WHISKERS WERE FAMOUS.

They Obscured His Whole Face Except the Nose and Eyes and Extended Halfway to His Waist—One of First to Denounce Wall Street.

William A. Peffer, who died recently, was the first and only Populist United States senator and founder of the Populist party.

A few months before he had suffered the amputation of a leg that a history on Populism, upon which he was at work, might be completed. It was to have been kept in the archives of the Kansas State Historical society to be read by historians in years to come.

It does not take a long political memory to recall the sensation which Senator Peffer made when he went to Washington as United States senator. He wore a beard which obscured his whole face except his nose and eyes and extended halfway to his waist. The whiskers became famous from one end of the country to the other, and dispatches from Washington were known to concern Senator Peffer when they spoke of whiskers without mentioning a name.

Was a Farmer's Son.

He was born in Cumberland county, Pa., on Sept. 10, 1831, the son of John Peffer, a farmer. The lad began teaching school when he was fifteen years old and worked on his father's farm when the country schools were not in session. He went west when he was twenty-one and in the second year of the civil war enlisted as a private in the Eighty-third regiment of Illinois volunteers. He served to the end of the war and was mustered out ranked as a lieutenant.

He went to Clarksville, Tenn., and began the practice of law, but soon afterward went to Kansas, where he lived for the rest of his life. He established two country newspapers and in 1874 was elected to the Kansas state senate. In 1880 he was a Republican presidential elector. It was in 1891 that the wave of Populism rose in the west, and Peffer went to the United States senate as a Populist senator. Seven years later, when he had retired from the senate, he was the Prohibition candidate for governor. Then he went back to his desk and spent the rest of his years as a writer.

In a contribution to the North American Review, written while he was still in the senate, he gave a terse summary of the Populist creed. It has many familiar ideas and several familiar phrases:

Populist Creed Summarized. "The Populist party is an organized demand that the functions of government shall be exercised only for the mutual benefit of all the people. It asserts that government is useful only to the extent that it serves to advance the common weal. Believing that the public good is paramount to private interests, it protests against the delegation of sovereign powers to private agencies.

"Its motto is 'Equal rights to all; special privileges to none.' Devoted to the interests for which the constitution of the United States was adopted, it proposes to insure domestic tranquility by securing to every man and woman what they earn; to 'establish justice' by procuring an equitable distribution of the products and profits of labor; to 'promote the general welfare' by abolishing class legislation; to 'secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity' by protecting the producing masses against the spoliation of speculators and usurers."

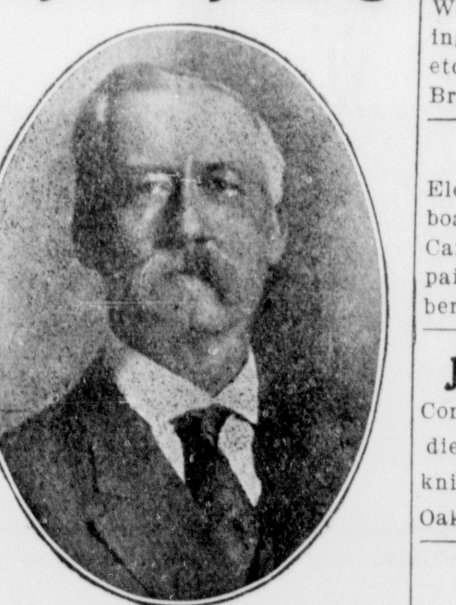

Senator Peffer was one of the first to raise a loud voice against Wall street. He fought "intrenched capital" and "vested interests" with all the vigor of his makeup.

He wrote in 1900 a book on "The Rise and Fall of Populism in the United States."

Mr. Peffer was a striking figure in

To the voters of Crow Wing County, Minnesota. Your support is requested by William W. Barron, Independent candidate for County Attorney for the following reasons:

- Your vote for him is a vote for better government
- He was born in the city of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing.
- He was educated in the Brainerd schools.
- He knows the conditions of Crow Wing County.
- He has done much already for the county.
- He will be able to do more if elected County Attorney.

the senate during his period of service there from March, 1891, to March, 1897. Tall, cadaverous, lynx eyed, soft of speech and of tread, humble in manner to the point of abjection at times, he introduced bills covering every one of the Populist contentions before he retired. None of them got further than first reading by title; but, forearmed with this knowledge, Peffer was not deterred from preparing them with laborious care and presenting them.

He retired so poor that the haughty senate, which once had reviewed him as a joke, provided for him a place on the payroll of its contingent fund to codify the senate index to the Congressional Record. This he held until a few years ago.

POLITICAL DEBATE ATTRACTED MANY

Col. Freeman Thorp Defends Republicanism and Beecher Moore Speaks for Socialism

BRAINERD CITY BAND PLAYED

Large Crowd Heard Debate at Opera House Saturday Evening, Paying Small Admission

The debate at the opera house Saturday evening attracted a large audience who had the pleasure of hearing two good campaign speakers, Col. Freeman Thorp of Hubert for the republicans and Beecher Moore of Minneapolis for the socialist cause.

Before the debate the Brainerd City band played several selections outside the opera house and then played inside for half an hour. Their repertoire embraced many new selections and they were heartily applauded.

Beecher Moore spoke half an hour and was followed by Col. Thorp who spoke for an hour. Mr. Moore then closed the arguments in a half hour speech.

The address of Col. Thorp was a most comprehensive exposition of the policies and aims of President Taft and the party he represented. The colonel used but a few notes and only referred to them in a casual manner. It was said by many to have been one of the best campaign speeches delivered in Brainerd. Col. Thorp touched on the present prosperity the country is enjoying, the great demand for labor, and the general good conditions in all lines of business.

Beecher Moore took up the question of trusts and maintained that by improved methods and combinations the cost of production was being constantly cheapened, but that in like ratio the selling price was constantly being raised. He embellished his address with many illustrations. He told the story of the man who bought his wife a tub and wash board and compelled her to take in washing to support the two. A committee of citizens waited on him and told him to quit working his wife to death. The man went down town, bought five more tubs and wash boards, hired five girls to help his wife, did laundry work on a large scale, thus became a business man and then joined the commercial club. He also took up legislative affairs and related how proper legislation was often blocked with ridiculous bills.

The strictest attention was given each speaker, and the voters present were satisfied that republicanism and socialism had been clearly defined by the respective speakers and the lines drawn so that voters would go to the polls on Tuesday, November 5th, with their eyes open.

A small admission fee of 15 cents was charged and no one there begrudged paying it.

NOTED MINING MEN VISIT THE RANGE

Railway Men, Oliver Mining Co. and Steel Corporation Officials Visit the

CUYUNA-MILLE LACS CO. MINE

This Mine Will Make All Rail Shipments to South Chicago This Winter

Ironton, Minn., November 2—A party of prominent railway men and mining officials visited the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs company's manganese mine and were surprised at the showing made by the company which in less than a year has sunk its shaft, blocked out a large body of the highest grade manganese ore found in the United States and commenced its first shipments to the Ashland, Wis., furnaces where the ore went almost $10 a ton.

In the party were W. A. McGonagle, president of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway; J. H. Harding, assistant general manager of the Oliver Mining Co.; J. H. McLain, general manager of the Oliver Mining Co.; Mr. Mitchell, vice president of the Oliver Mining Co.; John U. Sebenius, chief engineer of the Oliver Mining Co.; D. J. Kerr, vice president of the United States Steel corporation.

Accompanied by Secretary W. H. Locker, of the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs Iron company and Thomas McGuire, one of the directors of Staples, the party examined the mine and the work done in the way of development. They also examined the Cuyuna Northern railway, recently built, and on which the mine recently made its first shipment of ore, this being also the first iron ore ever carried on the Northern Pacific railway from territory served by the railway.

During the winter the mine will make steady shipments by rail to the furnaces at Chicago and vicinity and will thus be the first mine in the history of the entire Lake Superior region which ever enjoyed such a distinction. Heretofore winter marked the close of shipments as ore was always shipped by water from Superior and Duluth and never made a cross country shipment by rail.

"The Havoc"

Mr. Paul Gilmore, in his engagement at the Brainerd opera house, Friday evening, November 15, will present the actor-manager in a big dominant role of the type with which play goers have learned to associate his name. "The Havoc" is a tense, gripping drama, built upon the story of a duel of wits between an injured husband and a treacherous guest in his home. The big role of the play, the husband, offers one of the most convincing characters seen on the stage in recent years and is played by Mr. Gilmore with quiet power and tense nervous force.

WORK OF SCHOLARS

Exhibited at Court House on Friday Afternoon by County Superintendent Mrs. Hartley

At the recent meeting of the rural school teachers and the county school boards at the court house, there was placed on exhibition in the hall the handwork of some of the pupils of the rural schools.

Various subjects had been assigned the pupils and they wrote their compositions and embellished them with drawings or with appropriate pictures clipped from newspapers and magazines. The subjects were:

Corn, by Fred Fox, aged 10, of district No. 84. Poultry by Edith Moberg, aged 12, of Pequot. Corn by Herman Olander. Potatoes, a well written and illustrated composition by Selma Anderson, aged 10, of Neutral. Poultry, also well written and illustrated, by Marie Anderson, aged 14, of Neutral. Corn, by Arnold Ennis, of Woods. Minnesota by Rose Fleischhacker of district No. 19. Flowers, embellished with water color sketches, by Emma Goldsberry, aged 12, of Mission, district No. 93. Bread, by Lucy Moshier, aged 10, of district No. 63, Garrison. Strawberries, by Alta Dinwiddie, aged 10, of Garrison. This was a nicely arranged composition. Sheep, with pen and ink drawings, by Gertrude Peaslee, of district No. 28. Horses, by Vera Dane, aged 13, of district No. 54, Pequot. Cattle, by Esther Moberg, aged 8, of district No. 54, Pequot. Potatoes, by Arthur Johnson, aged 15, of district No. 20. Poultry, by Earl Olsen, aged 12, of district No. 54, Pequot.

Many were attracted to the little display which hung on a line in the hallway. Each booklet showed taste in arrangement and composition and marked well the interest being taken in these subjects in the rural schools.

NOT BY SHEETS

Political Advertisement of W. W. Barron Was Authorized By Barron Himself

The Dispatch on Saturday printed and today will also print the political advertisement of W. W. Barron. This advertisement was issued by and in behalf of Mr. Barron and not by Mr. Sheets.

Mr. Sheets printed the advertisement in his weekly and then turned over the copy and cut to the Dispatch to run. In a letter written by Mr. Barron to Mr. Sheets the latter was ordered to turn over the advertisement to the Dispatch. This correction is made in justice to Mr. Sheets as the latter is positively no campaign committee for Mr. Barron.

A BRILLIANT SUCCESS

What the Cass Lake Times Thought of the Work of Winsome, Dainty Miss Dorothy Humes

Miss Dorothy Humes, who has charge of the vaudeville soon to be given under the auspices of the Bachelor Maids in this city, comes highly recommended.

At Cass Lake Miss Hume's entertainment scored a brilliant success and the Cass Lake Times, from which excerpts have been made, has the following to say of winsome, dainty Miss Humes and the entertainment which was produced under her direction.

"Nothing could have been more attractive, more refined than the duets of the Misses Dorothy Humes and Donna Lyeon. Exquisitely gowned, dainty and deliciously pretty, the two girls achieved an artistic triumph which easily places them in the ranks of the highest professionals. They were repeatedly encored. In the Indian dance which included Margaret Parshall, whose picture posing Tuesday won the greatest admiration, Miss Humes and Miss Lyeon emphasized the really remarkable diversification of their talents. "Garbed in strictly Indian costumes of the Navajo tribe, of the richest quality, the effect was weirdly beautiful, while the dancing of Miss Humes was fascinating in the extreme."

"In her nursery songs Miss Humes scored another success, her sweet adaptable voice, and her inimitable mimicry captured the house. In acting and as stage manager Miss Humes has accomplished almost impossible. The boys and girls of Cass Lake who have contributed largely to the success of the affair were thoroughly drilled, and entered into the spirit of the occasion with pleasing promptness."

"We voice the opinion of every individual who attended last week's entertainments when we acknowledge our inestimable indebtedness to Miss Dorothy Humes."

It isn't because the cigar is badly made that the wrapper sometimes comes uncurled. It is because the cigar is a left handed one.
Cigarmakers must be ambidextrous. They cut the wrapper and leaf on the bias, rolling it from left to right on the filler, while the other piece is rolled with the left hand, from right to left.
A nervous smoker, twisting and twirling his cigar, has no trouble with a right hand one, but if it happens to be a left hand one it is apt to come undone.—New York Tribune.

TAXATION IN MINNESOTA
Equality of Taxation as Between Individuals Depends Upon Fairness of Assessment
With this issue the series of articles upon taxation which the tax commission has been publishing in this journal for the past ten months will be discontinued for the present. The commission has been deeply impressed with the fact that notwithstanding the widespread complaints of the unfairness and injustice of the existing method of taxation, comparatively few taxpayers have taken the trouble to familiarize themselves with the details of those methods, and fewer still have devoted much thought or study as to how those methods may be best improved.
The articles have been prepared and published in the hope that, brief as they necessarily are, they would to some extent familiarize the public with the details of the existing system and thereby stimulate that discussion and consideration which must always precede any legislation tending to a reform or improvement of the system. They have been mainly devoted to the general property tax which comes nearest to and directly affects all of the people, and which is based upon the assessed valuation of all property owned by each individual.
The amount of taxes collected does not depend upon the amount of the assessment of property, nor upon the rate of taxation. Taxes are high when and where the expenditure for public purposes is large; they are low when such expenditure is small. Assessment and rate are merely the means of raising the money to be expended, and of determining how much each individual shall contribute for that purpose. But an equality of taxation as between the individual taxpayers depends entirely upon the fairness of the assessment. The only remedy for high taxation is a reduction in public expenditures; the remedy for unfair taxation is a fair and equitable assessment.

The commission acknowledges its indebtedness to the newspapers of the state for their cordial and unselfish assistance in the publication of these articles. Although their publication has not been as productive of as much criticism, suggestion, and discussion as was expected the commission feels that some public good has been accomplished. Whatever of good there may be it is largely to the press of the state that the credit is due. Without the least compensation and with some inconvenience to themselves these newspapers have given their space liberally to the work of enlightening their readers upon the perplexing and little understood system of taxation in Minnesota.
The commission will publish the entire series in pamphlet form for free general circulation, and will be pleased to distribute them to those who by letter or in person may so request.
Kelly the Popular Comedian
Such a large crowd greeted the Sherman Kelly Stock company upon their return visit to Brainerd that they were forced to wait in line to secure their tickets at the Brainerd opera house last night and practically every seat was occupied.
Mr. Kelly, as the "Yankee Doodle Boy" in the play of the same title, had a role which seemed to fit him like a glove and his smile was very much in evidence throughout the entire bill. That same smile is a big winner for Kelly.
His supporting company this season is the best Mr. Kelly has ever surrounded himself with. Miss Ruth Gale, his talented leading lady, gave a splendid performance of Truly Spencer.
Tonight one of Mr. Kelly's best comedies will be the offering and standing room only will be very much in evidence, judging by the advance sale of tickets. Election returns will be read from the stage as fast as they are received Tuesday night.
Mr. Kelly, the popular comedian with the Sherman Kelly Stock Co. has won friends throughout the northwest with his clever acting. He always works with smile and seems to enjoy his work more than anything else. He works, with ease at all times and while he does not seem to be exerting himself, the laughter and applause that he receives from his audience shows that he is getting results. He is one of the youngest comedians in the world, and the only one owning his own company. He has spent the last eight years playing his regular territory in the middle west. And Mr. Kelly says he is right at home in every town he plays. Ladies will be admitted free tonight under the usual conditions.

No Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Sour, Gassy, Upset Stomach for Pape's Diapepsin Users
Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.
This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.
If your meals don't fit comfortably or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.
Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.
Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.
Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.
These large fifty-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

A Costly Mistake.
Wetherby—I made the mistake of my life this morning. I told my wife I didn't like her new gown.
Plankington—What, was she angry?
Wetherby—Oh, no; it wasn't that. But she wants another.

Good Care of the Hair - - Makes all Women Fair
Hair—natural, snappy, well kept hair is woman's greatest beauty. The hair first attracts attention. Nice, clean, fluffy hair, growing on the head it adorns, makes for personal charm more than a clear complexion, regular features or a handsome gown. Beautiful hair, which commands admiration everywhere, is almost always associated with the use of that
Well Known Scalp Prophylactic
Newbro's Herpicide
The worst enemy of good hair is dandruff caused by an invisible microbe growth or germ. Herpicide used intelligently destroys this germ, removes the dandruff and thus prevents further loss of hair. It imparts life, luster and luxuriance which constitute hair beauty. There is a subtle and delightful color about Herpicide that never offends but appeals to everyone. Herpicide contains no grease and does not stain or dry. The itching which indicates dandruff, usually stops almost at once. There is no need for anyone to be deceived by other preparations that have adopted our advertising claims. You can avoid possible disappointment by insisting upon having genuine Herpicide long known as the Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer.

VOTE FOR

Charles E. Gravel, Jr.

For Representative

Mr. Charles E. Gravel, Jr. was born and raised in Morrison county. He was also connected with a store business in Brainerd for several years. Since 1904 he has managed the business of the Rich Prairie Milling Company at Pierz, Minn., and has built up a substantial business and one that is a credit to that vicinity. He believes in the Initiative, Referendum and Recall. Will vote for the Peoples' choice for Senator.
